Betty Lehman, Disability Advisor Betty has served nearly thirty years as an advocate for special needs individuals and their families. While raising her son with disabilities, she spearheaded fourteen state statutes, generating hundreds of millions of dollars annually of benefits for those with disabilities and their families. Betty authored Special Directions ©, a comprehensive life care planning document for parents.

Melissa J. Edelman, CLU, ChSNC Melissa has served over twenty-five years in the financial services industry. She works extensively with special needs families to plan the entire family's financial future with an eye to the lifetime of the special needs child. She is a parent of three children, one with special needs.

"It was so great to meet with Betty and Melissa - this is the missing piece we have been searching for.

It is a great relief for us to have a resource like you two - someone that not only understands and lives all this, but someone who knows the answers, or knows how to get the answers.

Thank you for all the important work you do to help families like ours."
